I.ESSAY QUESTIONS:

(Answer any Five-Answer should not exceed 3 pages or 300 words)

1. Frame seven questions from the following passage.

For that we'll first have to understand what happens when we breathe. Normally when we breathe in, we inhale oxygen, and our body uses it up. The body makes a waste product called carbon dioxide that is exhaled from the lungs when we breathe out. When we are sleepy bored or tired, we breathe slowly. Our body requires oxygen, and needs to discard carbon dioxide, so our brain makes us take an extra breath, which is deep and long. Thus a yawn born. Hence we obtain more of oxygen and purge ourselves of the excess carbon dioxide, said Prithi.

2. Paragraph the poetry

Said Orville Wright to Wilbur Wright
These birds are very trying
I'm sick of hearing them cheep-cheep
About the fun of flying

A bird has feathers it is true
That much I freely grant
But must that stop us W?
Said Wilbur Wright, I shan't
And so they built another
